

COAL PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHTER IN OHIO

YOU MUST SAVE COAL

Every resident of Lima and Northwestern Ohio MUST save every bit of coal possible. The situation is not desperate now and we do not want it to be!

But if everyone uses coal and lights and power to the limit it will not be long until we will face a fuel famine—and you can imagine what that means in the dead of winter.

Suppose we would have a winter like the one of two years ago. Suppose the railroads could not transport what little coal remains to be handled. Imagine your utilities shutting down!

Begin now—today. Turn off every light in your house you can possibly get along without. Do not heat a single room more than is actually needed.

Watch your furnace or stove like a hawk. Don't keep your house warmer than is healthful. Be careful about banking your fire.

Be economical of gas in your cooking stove or range. Cold weather means a shortage of gas.

Remember that it will be INDIVIDUAL effort to curtail use of fuel that will carry Lima through this critical shortage period.

DO YOUR PART—and the other fellow will.

COX PROPOSAL IS APPROVED IN COAL TROUBLE

Prospects in Ohio Good for Return of Men to Work.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Dec. 6.—A settlement of the strike of bituminous coal miners in Ohio and western Pennsylvania would be followed quickly by a settlement in the Illinois field, Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois miners, said today.

Reports of an early settlement of the strike in Ohio were discounted by Farrington who said he was "disinclined to believe the rumors to be true for the reason that the Ohio and Western Pennsylvania miners could not enter into an independent settlement without violating the national policy formulated by the Cleveland convention."

COLUMBUS O., Dec. 6.—Industries in all parts of the state are curtailing the consumption of coal and a great many have suspended operation because of the shortage.

Unless production is resumed within a few days, state officials predict that several hundred thousand workmen in Ohio will be idle.

Industrial leaders, however, are optimistic and have hopes that Governor Cox's negotiations with operators and miners' leaders will bring about a settlement of the strike of Ohio miners. Governor Cox, following a conference with operators yesterday, declared the prospects for settlement are good and conferences will be resumed Monday morning.

Negotiations between the governor and the disputants were held behind closed doors. While no statement as to proposals for a compromise were made public, it was believed the governor proposed an increase of approximately 25 per cent.

A. A. Augustus, president of the Cambridge Collieries Company, one largest coal companies of the state, said he was willing to accept the governor's proposal.

It is generally believed the 25 per cent increase will be acceptable to the Ohio miners.

Mayor Schrantz of Canton, has announced that if no agreement is reached between the operators and miners here, he will issue a call for volunteer miners to operate mines in Stark county to relieve the coal shortage in the county and Canton. The coal, he announced will be distributed for domestic consumption only.

At Sandusky and Port Clinton, along Lake Erie, a number of manufacturing plants have been closed. Confiscation of coal for the operation of the Sandusky Light plant days.

Theatres and motion picture houses in many cities have voluntarily agreed to extinguish their electric signs one hour each night.

Two of four coke ovens at the National Tube Company at Lorain were closed today because of the coal shortage.

In a number of cities officials have taken steps preparatory to cutting local train service.

DEMURRER OVERRULED

Judge Klinger overruled a demurrer Saturday morning in the damage suit of Rose Harsh against Claude Vor.

ONLY

Candidacy of Harding For Two Places Opposed

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 6.—Refusal of certain republican county central and executive committees to adopt the suggestion sent out by a group of state leaders to meet and approve the presidential candidacy of United States Senator Warren C. Harding and to endorse his reelection for a second term as senator has brought to light an interesting political situation.

Surrounding conditions are said to be responsible for the reports of the grooming of certain other prominent members of the party for the senatorial succession.

Today it was made clear that in at least three counties the refusal to go any farther to endorse Harding's senatorial candidacy is based upon these conditions which his double candidacy will foster.

Under the terms of the primary nomination law, candidates for the senatorial nomination will be required to file their declaration of intention 60 days before the second Monday in August. Harding therefore, will be compelled to enter his name early in June before the republican national convention is called to order.

QUARTER MILLION MEN TO BE IDLE IN DETROIT ALONE

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 6.—Unless there is an immediate betterment in the fuel situation upwards of a quarter of a million workers in Michigan face the possibility of being thrown out of work during the next few days, in the opinion of leading employers.

In Detroit alone approximately 200,000 men may face temporary unemployment the coming week as the result of notification given the Employers' Association by the Detroit Edison Company, that power will be furnished to only essential industries, that to other plants being cut four-fifths. This company furnishes 70 per cent of the power used in Detroit factories.

At Lansing dozens of plants have already suspended and others will close. Regional Fuel Administrator Findlay has announced that not a pound of coal will be delivered to firms outside the first five priorities and curtailment of electric signs and public lighting will commence tonight.

Jimmy Wilde to Fight in Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 6.—Jimmy Wilde, Great Britain's flyweight champion will make his first American appearance here tonight, meeting Jack Shakes, a rugged New York bantamweight in a 10-round no-decision contest. The match will be staged at the auditorium, which has a seating capacity of ten thousand. Indications were that the contest would draw $40,000. Wilde has been guaranteed $11,000.

OHIO BANKER DIES

HAMILTON, O., Dec. 6.—Samuel Dustin Fitton, Sr., president of the First National Bank of Hamilton, died at 10.45 today following a week of valiant fighting for life. Death was due to diabetes and carbuncles.

Street Cars Are Cheered as They Appear in Toledo

TOLEDO, Dec. 6.—For the first time in a month, the city has complete street car service today. Following action of the council in permitting the company again to use the streets, and an order by Federal Judge Killits for restoration of service, all cars were in operation during the morning. Service came just in time to shield the public from a snow storm and continued cold weather.

At many points the riders let out lusty cheers and traffic on the cars exceptionally heavy despite the competition of several hundred motor buses.

The buses are still running on municipal permits, but it was announced that the smaller cars are dropping out. More than 3,000 bus permits were issued and today less than 500 were on the streets. Busmen have cut the fare to five cents. The street car company is charging six cents, two cents for transfer. This was the fare when the company a month ago took its cars into Michigan after the people voted for an ouster ordinance.

O. S. U. HOPING FOR BIG DONATION FROM KETTERING

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 6.—C. F. Kettering, Dayton manufacturer, alumnus and trustee of Ohio State University, according to a Dayton newspaper, may make a large gift to the university.

"Information is to the effect that Kettering will not build a stadium, (as reported two weeks ago), but instead will set aside a large endowment fund for the university," the report said.

"That he will give outright enough money to erect a modern engineering laboratory, was an apparently well-founded report," the paper continued.

An official of the university said nothing definite had been announced concerning a donation from Kettering.

OIL PROFITEERS TO BE PROSECUTED BY U. S. AGENTS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Prosecution of western oil producers for alleged profiteering was ordered today by Attorney General Palmer. On complaint filed by Senator Capper, of Kansas, federal agents were instructed to proceed at once against producers who have taken advantage of the fuel shortage in the west to increase the price of their product.

Simultaneously the railroad administration established an embargo effective Monday against shipment of fuel oil from the west to points east of Chicago and St. Louis. This action, it was explained, was necessary to conserve the small supplies of coal available for the territory west of the Mississippi river and to compel, where possible the use of fuel oil instead.

STEEL PRESIDENT RESIGNS

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Dec. 6.—W. A. Thomas, president of the Brier Hill Steel Company, second largest plant in the Mahoning Valley, has tendered his resignation, effective January 1, it was announced at the company's office today. It was said that Mr. Thomas will take a rest much needed after his work in developing the company. He has headed the concern since its organization.

JENKINS OUT ON BAIL; NOT YET FREE MAN

Bond is Given For U. S. Consul Without His Knowing it President to Take Active Hand in the Mexican Muss.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The American government has not changed its attitude on the Jenkins case, and had no part in obtaining his release on bail, Secretary Lansing declared today in denying vague rumors that the state department had unofficially "passed the word" to the embassy at Mexico City to see that the consular agent was liberated on bond.

The state department, it was said, has not yet been advised officially that Jenkins was released on bail. It received word today that Jenkins himself did not know until after he was liberated that bond was furnished and that he is conducting an investigation on his own account to determine who was responsible for his liberation.

An official report to the state department today said the Carranza soldier who shot James Wallace, an American oil man, near Tampico, recently, had been arrested. No other information was given in the dispatch.

PARIS, Dec. 6.—In a note drafted by the supreme council today it is demanded that Germany sign the protocol providing for the carrying out of the peace terms, failing which the allies, it is set forth, will be obliged to have recourse to military measures.

PARIS, Dec. 6.—Germany will be called upon in a rigorous note which the supreme council of the peace conference will complete today to yield immediately to the allied demand that the protocol of the Versailles treaty be signed, according to the Excelsior. The newspaper says it has reliable information that Washington has advised Berlin to adopt a more conciliatory attitude.

If ratification is not completed by December 31, says the EXCELSIOR, certain clauses of the pact will be rendered impracticable and the allies will be obliged to submit to Germany a new protocol, which will result in still further delay.

Milady's Dress Not to be Lower In Price Anyhow

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 6.—Low prices of women's clothing will be possible only when productiveness of labor increases, demand for finer grades of wool textiles and styles are adjusted to the supply of fabrics. These assertions were made by speakers before the annual meeting of the National Cloak, Suit and Skirt Manufacturers' Association here. As a means of adjusting styles to the supply of fabrics, a resolution was adopted calling for co-operation between garment makers and producers.

Kansas Gets Coal Thru Volunteers

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 6.—Kansas was getting coal in fairly appreciable quantities through the volunteer plan today, Missouri expected to be doing so by night; Oklahoma, where martial law has been declared in the coal-producing counties, hopes to be in the business by Monday, and Arkansas, reports indicated, probably will have launched its volunteer mining venture by early next week. That apparently summarized the coal production situation in the southwest today.

THE OLD PRICE IS RESTORED JANUARY 5

Owing to the rapidly advancing price of newsprint, The Times-Democrat reluctantly announces that it must return to its original price of 10c per week, delivered in the city. When the price was reduced a short time ago to 6c a week, the paper market appeared to have stabilized, but since that time it has gone up rapidly.

The price will be maintained, if possible, but we can not guarantee it for any length of time.

The higher rate will take effect Monday, January 5 AND NOT BEFORE.

PRESIDENT WILSON STILL SHOWS FIGHT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—President Wilson asked Senator Albert B. Fall to transmit for him a message to Senator George Moses, New Hampshire, Republican.

Weeks ago, a letter from Senator Moses to one of his constituents in New Hampshire said the President was suffering from a cerebral lesion and that although he might recover he never would be a force in public life.

"I hope that you will deliver a message for me to Dr. Moses," said the President to Senator Fall in the White House this afternoon, "that will tend to contradict his diagnosis of my case. Tell him I think I'll be up in a few days and be able to attend to business in the same old way. It will reassure him, but disappoint him."

Last Word is Sent Germany By the Allies

PARIS, Dec. 6.—In a note drafted by the supreme council today it is demanded that Germany sign the protocol providing for the carrying out of the peace terms, failing which the allies, it is set forth, will be obliged to have recourse to military measures.

PARIS, Dec. 6.—Germany will be called upon in a rigorous note which the supreme council of the peace conference will complete today to yield immediately to the allied demand that the protocol of the Versailles treaty be signed, according to the Excelsior. The newspaper says it has reliable information that Washington has advised Berlin to adopt a more conciliatory attitude.

If ratification is not completed by December 31, says the EXCELSIOR, certain clauses of the pact will be rendered impracticable and the allies will be obliged to submit to Germany a new protocol, which will result in still further delay.

DRASTIC CUTTING OF TRAFFIC AND CLOSING OF INDUSTRIES MARKS COAL FAMINE PROGRESS

Booze Selling Freely in St. Louis Under Court Rule

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 6.—Intoxicants were sold freely in St. Louis today following the order of Federal Judge Faris yesterday temporarily restraining the United States district attorney and the collector of internal revenue from interfering with the sale of such beverages.

Thousands of gallons of whiskey and wines were disposed of, and it was a common sight to see persons boarding street cars with large battered jugs and bundles of quart bottles.

Whiskey at wholesale brought from $17 to $23 a gallon, according to the proof, and saloons sold drinks at 20 to 50 cents each, "pour it yourself."

Bottled goods retailed at an average of $10 a quart.

Call Family in Effort to Clear Murder Mystery

LAWTON, Mich., Dec. 6.—County Prosecutor Adams was today awaiting word from Yerka, Calif., as to whether Mrs. Lester Tabor and Walter Tabor, mother and brother of Miss Maude Tabor, prominent teacher in this state and the west, would return here voluntarily as witnesses at the inquest over Miss Tabor's body, which was found buried in the basement of the family home last Sunday.

Upon the testimony of the mother buried in the basement of the family home yesterday, the authorities have their hope of clearing up the mysterious disappearance of Miss Tabor four years ago. The inquest now stands adjourned with out the cause of the woman's death being revealed.

Price of Coal Must Not Rise Says Garfield

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Not one cent can be added to the price of coal to finance any increases in the wages of miners, Fuel Administrator Garfield declared today, after reading press dispatches that Governor Cox, of Ohio, had proposed that miners and operators in that state compromise on the basis of a 25 per cent advance in pay for the men. Dr. Garfield indicated that the government would interpose no objection if the increase could be given without advancing coal prices.

"There will be no increase in the present price of coal as fixed under the Lever act," Dr. Garfield said, "no matter what local arrangements and agreements are put into effect."

He added that his position was absolutely unchanged from that taken on November 26, with the authorization of the cabinet. Dr. Garfield explained then, in suggesting the 14 per cent advance, which the miners promptly rejected, that he was not fixing wage scales, and had no authority to do so. He indicated that the increase suggested was merely that which the operators were able to grant without advancing the price of coal which the government has fixed.

Only a Few Miners Reported Back to Work on Saturday.

Canada Coal Aids Some in Northwest; New York Pinching

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—Drastic curtailment of passenger train service throughout the country, the eastern and southern regional directors taking virtually the same action as that two days ago by the central, north and southwestern directors, today had been ordered as a fuel conservation measure. As the strike of coal miners entered its sixth week, optimism which some operators were said to feel was not reflected in actual favorable developments reported in the coal fields.

Additional industries today were closed or had given notice that operation would be suspended after today, while the coal saving orders that already had put Chicago on a 6 1/2 hour business day and affected other cities of the central west, north and southwest to a lesser degree, were extended to other places. At Chicago a six hour day beginning Monday was decreed and it was predicted by members of the regional coal committee that a few days continuance of the miners' walkout would force a four hour day.

Few Miners Back

Only in isolated instances and in small groups were miners reported to be resuming production. In the great central competitive field and in others of the larger organized areas, the miners generally maintained their attitude of remaining away from work until a larger wage increase than 14 per cent decreed by the federal fuel administration was forthcoming.

Production of coal at the Kansas strip pits by volunteer workers increased, however, and plans were advanced for similar work in Missouri, Oklahoma and Arkansas.

In the reduction of approximately one-third in "train miles" ordered in passenger traffic, some of the country's palatial trains were affected. They included the Twentieth Century on the New York Central and Broadway Limited on the Pennsylvania railroad between New York and Chicago and the North Coast Limited between Chicago and North Pacific coast points.

The reduction in the central, north and southwestern regions is effective Monday; in the southern Tuesday and in the eastern region Wednesday.

Canada Coal Aid

With moderation of the unusually low temperatures that prevailed over most of the country west of the Mississippi river, for several days, urgency of pleas for fuel apparently had diminished today. Many small cities and towns in Nebraska, Montana and Western Kansas still were virtually without coal, however, and substitutes were at premium. Canadian coal shipments somewhat relieved the situation in the far northwest.

On the eastern side of the continent New York's conservation steps consisted of turning off heat in subway, elevated and surface cars during rush hours; eliminating heating of cabins on ferry-boats operated by the railroad administration and voluntary darkening of signs by theatre managers, except for one hour in the evening. Many of the electric advertising signs along Broadway remained lighted.

UNION MEN MUST PAY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—All bituminous coal mines in operation must close within a week unless the railroad administration pays for the coal it has confiscated or diverted, said a statement today by the American Wholesale Coal Association.

YOKOHAMA, Dec. 6.—Following a refusal of their demand for an eight hour day, a 100 percent increase in wages and a system of pensions, the tram car employees of Yokohama yesterday went on strike.

Impostors Claiming to Have

For Sale.

Never perhaps in the history of the world have there been so many "loose" jewels as there are in the present day. The treasures of the Serbian kings, the royal treasures of Russia, the jewels of private individuals whose homes were invaded—are today in the hands of unknown persons in various parts of the world. Few of the precious jewels of the European monarchs have appeared on the market.

Already the police of foreign countries are troubled with reports of frauds connected with these jewels. The impostor who professes to have a part of the "loose" loot is already offering to sell the treasures at a "ridiculously low price." If the purchaser will advance a certain sum "as evidence of good faith." And the police of the foreign countries are surprised at the number of people who are caught in the little fraudulent game. The same fraud was practiced when treasures were reported lost in the French Revolution in the Peninsular war, and in the Franco-Prussian war of 1871.

Russia is Rich Field.

While the political pot boils in Russia with such intensity that an outsider takes his life in his own hands to enter the country, treasure-seekers or their agents are already browsing around seeking the precious things that may come cheap among the sackers of the royal treasure houses. Whispers have spread of the stealthy passing of the wondrous gems concealed in filthy rags in the vile drinking dens of the criminal quarters of Petrograd. The agents of jewel seekers who have ventured into these criminal haunts for jewels stolen from the treasure houses of Russia are many. Dozens of death against the thieves have failed to restore the treasures.

The contents of the Kremlin, the greatest Russian royal treasure house, were alone estimated to be worth more than 100 million dollars. In it were the thrones of the past emperors, the royal crowns, the collection of hundreds of years of Russia's barbaric splendor. In the Winter Palace, the Petrograd residence of the court, were the crowns of the czar and the czarina, and the renowned room full of diamonds, emeralds and rubies ornaments. The royal residence outside of Petrograd, Tsarskoe Selo, with its famous lapis lazuli room of which the floor was of ebony picked out with mother of pearl was a third treasure house despoiled by the pillagers.

Serbian Jewels Looted.

And the Serbian monarch's jewels—treasures that no common eyes had ever looked upon—were looted as the invaders beat back the Serbian army late in 1914. In a secret vault within the grim walls of the ancient monastery of Vozok Bechani, far up in a mountain gorge, the jewels had remained hidden as they accumulated through the ages. The monastery had been guarded by a superstitious reverence where the holy dead would take vengeance against anyone daring to raise a predatory hand against it.

The royal jewels of Germany—their owners better able to take precautionary measures against their loss—have been secretly conveyed to places of security in Holland and Switzerland, and the jewels of the Hapsburgs are understood to have been preserved and in the hands of the government that has superseded the old regime.

SALE OF MAIN STREET HOUSE LARGEST DEAL

Very Few Big Transactions
in Lima Real Estate
Made This Week

NEW DWELLINGS SOLD

Four Farm Properties
Change Hands During Present Week

One of the largest real estate deals of the past week was the sale of the Franklin building, on South Main street by Otto Reichert to Charles Pfum, for a consideration of about $25,000. The building which is located on the east side of the street between Spring and Elm has a 25 foot frontage, and is a two story pressed brick building. Pfum bought the property as an investment, and contemplates no changes in the immediate future.

Another real estate deal, involving property near the downtown business district was the sale of the structure owned by Mrs. Mary Ash-ton, at West and Spring streets to John R. Carnes for $20,000. No announcement as yet has been made by Mr. Carnes as to what he intends to do with his new purchase.

The Lima Trades and Labor Council has purchased the property belonging to Frank Kommluk, on East Elm street just east of Main street as the site for their new temple. The deal was completed the first of the week, and it is probable work on the new building will be started in the spring.

Residential Sales.

The sale of two residence properties in the north end made during the week includes the sale of the Hingstbootham home at West and McKibben streets just opposite the St. Rose church to F. J. Callahan. The purchase price was about $5,000. This location would be a splendid site for an apartment house. Mrs. Monica Hingstbootham, of Toledo, formerly of Lima was owner of the property.

The second sale was that of the Sullivan home, 610 North Elizabeth street to W. C. Burns, 115 West McKibben street who bought it as his new home. The consideration was $5,500.

Farm Properties.

Deals involving the sale or transfer of farm properties near Lima made during the past week includes:

The sale of a 120 acre farm in Bath township belonging to Maurilio Higgins, and purchased by Mrs. Mary Higgins, for $8,500.

The sale of a 95 acre farm in Auglaize township belonging to G. A. Rumbaugh, and purchased by Frank L. Lacey for $12,000.

Mrs. Agnes Edgecomb has sold her farm of 106 acres in Auglaize township of Robert Baughman for $8,000.

Mexico City is Short of Toys, Sad to Relate

MEXICO CITY—The approach of Christmas finds a dearth of toys in Mexico with no apparent means for greatly increasing the supply. In former years Germany has provided unlimited number of gimcracks which found ready sale here but this source of supply was closed by the war. Other countries have been slow in entering this field of industrial activity. United States manufacturers have shown intentions of putting their toys on the market here but the goods have not arrived in appreciable amounts. The buyers of toys in Mexico have a special liking for novelty design, such as dolls that dance when a string is pulled. They prefer what is known to the trade as the "active toy."

Boys Will Hear About "Wild West"

The B. B. M. L. will have an especially attractive program next Sunday. The boys' orchestra will play from 2:00 to 2:30. Mr. P. R. Marshall is the speaker and his subject will be "The Wild West." Mr. Marshall has taken special interest in the boys of the Y. M. C. A., and knows how to talk to them. A picture will be taken of this group which is proving from Sunday to Sunday to be the most popular activity of the boys' division. In addition to the above program Miss Yvonne Gientzer will entertain the boys. Miss Gientzer is an eloquent and of ability.

All boys are welcome whether they are members of the Y. M. C. A. or not. The meeting is free.

WOMEN IN FINLAND DOING EVERY THING

Are in Offices, Workshops and Field Labor As Never Before.

HELSINKI, FINLAND.—An astonishing sight for the stranger in Finland is the number of women engaged in almost every field of employment. In England during the war one became accustomed to the sight of women performing various kinds of work in which previously only men were engaged. But in Finland the visitor gets the impression that the women are doing everything. They even serve as porters on sleeping cars.

Not only are they at heavy manual work in fields and factories, but they have become skilled as mechanics and have invaded business offices to an extent that is probably undreamed of in any other country.

In banks, the proportion of women employees to men appears to be about 10 to 1. In the biggest financial institutions in Helsinki, women hold positions involving great responsibility and calling for exceptional ability.

At the Finnish Foreign office, the Associated Press correspondent noticed that women were holding offices that would be entirely beyond the aspirations of their sisters in the state department at Washington or the British Foreign office.

This change has come about almost overnight. Finland's manpower has been greatly depleted, and a large part of what is left is required for military service.

The Finnish business woman is remarkably keen and intelligent. She has a kind of masculine interest and absorption in her work that seems to admit of no margin for sentiment or frivolity. She dresses simply and smartly, as do the majority of her city-bred women of this country. An American walking through the principal streets of Helsinki might well believe, judging from the costumes and brisk walk of the Finnish women, that he was in the heart of Chicago.

Teachers Addressed By Prof. Freeman

About 125 teachers in the rural and village schools of Allen county were in attendance today at the first adjourned session of the Allen County Teachers Association, held in the assembly room at Central high school. The only speaker for both morning and afternoon sessions was Professor C. A. Freeman, of Ada, state representative. Professor Freeman spoke on "Teaching Better English in our Public Schools."

The speaker was formerly professor of English at Ohio Northern University for many years, and is specially fitted for speaking on the above subject. Professor C. A. Arganbright, superintendent of county schools presided at the session.

CLOTHES AID SHOPLIFTER IN ELUDING ARM OF LAW

Dame fashion has been accused of many misdeeds since Eve tempted Adam with the forbidden fruit, and both the male and female of the human family became ashamed of their nakedness and started the clothing habit. In the case of woman especially the style of her raiment has been ever-changing, in a shuttle like manner from one extreme to the other, and has been accused of breaking up homes and hearts and causing premature wrinkles and bank failures, but the latest charge is that it is an accomplice to dangerous female criminals.

This work is not so successful in the larger cities where the police departments have clever women "cops" acquainted with the deepest mysteries of feminine make-up, but how is the Lima cop to know "Miss Shoplifter," who is described as "brunette and wearing blue-jeans business suit and black shoes," when she passes him on the street a peroxide blonde, camouflaged behind a huge muff, the latest thing in furs, and shoes of an altogether different description. It isn't possible to expect mere man to fathom such mysteries, even though he be a member of the Lima police force, or any other police force, and consequently the feminine offender is much harder to detect than her brother of criminal instincts.

OLD PLYMOUTH IS DIFFERENT CITY THAN IN PILGRIM DAYS

PLYMOUTH.—Plymouth, from whence came England's first woman M. P., today is not the little seaport town which the Mayflower left. It is still a seaport, shipping and fishing being the principal sources of revenue, but it is also one of England's most flourishing seaports, boasting a population of about 200,000.

Despite the city's prosperity and maritime importance, there are many of its customs which have remained unchanged through the three centuries since the pilgrims walked their farrowed.

American blue jackets have dubbed the town as "a nine o'clock town" for at that hour each evening the streets are practically deserted. Blinds are drawn, taxicabs are unavailable and night clerks in the hotels have settled themselves comfortably for the night's slumber behind their desks.

But if it is a nine o'clock town in the evenings, it is certainly "a six o'clock town" in the mornings for that time sees the majority of the people setting about their day's tasks, the fish market and dockyards are in full operation, the shopping districts beginning to open and the streets are lively.

"Famous as a departing point for the pilgrims and more recently by the arrival there of the N. C. after her flight across the Atlantic, it is appropriate that Plymouth should again get her name into history through sponsoring the famine invasion of the Commons," commented one Lady Astor's Unionist supporters.

FUNERAL SERVICES MONDAY.—Funeral services for Mrs. Bessie Malmade who died Friday night at her home 347 West High street will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence. Rev. F. A. Stiles of the First Baptist church will officiate. Burial will be made in Woodlawn cemetery.

BEAUTY ENDS LIFE.—CONNEAUT, O., Dec. 6.—Mrs. Lillian Alexander, 25, local divorcee, who was noted for her beauty, died today following, it is said, the taking of a large quantity of poison on Monday. Despondency over ill health and domestic troubles was said to have prompted the act.

The government of Venezuela will erect a radio station near Caracas sufficiently powerful to communicate with similar stations in the United States and Europe.

J. B. Williams Says He Feels Fine Now Since
Regained Appetite

"It may sound unreasonable, but you may believe it or not, but after taking four bottles of Tanlac I have actually gained twenty-five pounds," said J. B. Williams, a well known and prosperous farmer, who lives at Greenbrier, Tenn., near Nashville.

"I had a bad case of stomach trouble last summer and it kept pretty near knocking me out," continued. "It was something like nervous indigestion. I began to go down hill and it looked like the more medicine I took and the harder I tried to get well the worse would get. We had pretty near everything to eat, but nothing tasted right, and I got so weak and nervous I couldn't do anything. In fact, was just completely knocked out. 'Before I had this spell I weighed 160 pounds and kept falling off until I got down to where I weighed 135 pounds."

"I am now back to my regular weight again and feel strong and well. My appetite is simply fine now and I don't mind my work. This medicine just took right hold of me and put me on my feet. 'Well, sir, the second day after I began taking it I got hungry and oh, how good that old ham did taste! I sleep fine now, too, and am not nervous like I was. Even the barking of the dogs at night does not wake me up."

"I never believed that a medicine could be made that would do anybody as much good as Tanlac has done me, and I want to recommend it to everybody suffering with the same troubles I had."

Tanlac is sold in Lima by The Hunter Drug Stores and the leading druggist in every town.

To exterminate grasshoppers a Wisconsin man has invented a device to be pushed across a field, the insects jumping against a polished metal surface from which they slide between rollers that crush them.

Believes in the Progress of Mankind

PHILIP GIBBS, in a recent magazine article dealing with his impressions of this country, takes occasion to say: "The thing I liked best in the United States is the belief of its citizens in the progress of mankind toward higher ideals of common sense; and after the madness of a world at war it is good to find such faith, however difficult to believe."

It required a foreigner to discover in us this sublime faith—but there is not the shadow of a doubt of its existence. We do a good deal of foolish talking and nearly as much foolish writing about the decadence of the times; we deplore with each other that things are not what they used to be. But underneath the talking and the writing there is absolute confidence in the progress of the world and faith in all mankind.

Otherwise it would not happen that we build for tomorrow. Often it is that the very fellow who is talking most pessimistically about present conditions, and deploring that things are not as they were, is in a deal at the time for land upon which to build a factory to double his business, or is working out plans for many years in advance, with all the hopefulness and faith which Mr. Gibbs saw beneath the surface while visiting in this country.

Ghouls

AN ILLINOIS NEWSPAPER tells this familiar story of a family dispute over the estate of a deceased parent:

"A cloud of witnesses was taken to Carthage to testify. Some will testify that he was a raving or dithering imbecile while others will maintain that he was of alert mind and full business capacity. One side will try to prove the will was made for him and was a deliberate attempt or conspiracy to rob them of their patrimony and the other side will endeavor to show that the will was his own act, that it expresses his full intent, and that he was as badly treated by these not included in the will that he had full reason and justification for leaving them out."

What a sad, and yet not uncommon picture. Almost every court in the land contains records of similar tragedies. As in all such cases, this old man labored, saved and sacrificed to accumulate wealth, and to what purpose? Only to breed discord and deadly enmity among his children. Who will not say that it would have been a thousand times better if the fathers in such cases had accumulated only sufficient to afford them decent burial? Yet men and women will continue to go on, day after day, working, saving, sacrificing and wearing out mind and body in order to accumulate "something for the children" which, in very many cases, proves to be an absolute curse to their offspring.

GOOD EVENING—Because he annoyed his wife and mother-in-law by telephoning the house 37 times a day, a Brooklyn newly-wed has been sentenced to three months in jail. Such is love and life and mother-in-law.

There has been a lot of figuring done to prove the cost of living in Washington, but the country, not desiring to live there, is confining its thoughts to how to make a living at home, and letting Washington do its own worrying, wondering how anybody happened to be there anyhow!

The men over in London say that patches on trousers are a badge of honor, and are reminded that we have been decorated with great distinction in our time.

Judging the present by the past, we wonder why President Wilson doesn't speed up the work in Congress by urging Congress to take its time.

We have come to the conclusion that what the world needs is more picture show endings in actual life and fewer on the screen.

They say that clothes make the man, but women's clothes often unmake him.

HAPPY THOUGHT—Go to church tomorrow.

OUR BED-TIME STORY

FOR TINY TIMES-DEMOCRAT FOLKS

And now for the capture of the marauding boat and Captain Kidnapers and the rescue of Jack and Jane.

The plan, Captain Bold and the others decided upon was this: The submarine was to lie up to the surface for about a minute while going around the bow of the ship—long enough for Coma to slip out of the door on the top. Coma who was a good swimmer, was to swim up close to the front of the ship and then call for help as though he were going to drown. The calls would startle the kidnapers and all of them would rush up to the bow of the ship to see who it was. And while they were at the bow of the ship Captain Bold would run the submarine up to the stern of the ship and he and the others would jump onto the boat with their revolvers in their hands and be ready to make the kidnapers surrender before the band discovered them.

The plan worked perfectly. The submarine bobbed up long enough for Coma to scramble out without anyone on the big boat seeing the submarine. It didn't take Coma long to swim over to the boat. And how he did yell for help. Why, you'd almost think he really was drowning.

The kidnapers, down in the cabin at the stern of the boat, heard his cries. They rushed to the bow of the boat, more to keep him from seeing the children or even getting on the vessel than to help him. And while they cried out to him, asking him how he got there, the sub-

SYMPTOMS AND DISEASES—HOW SCIENCE "TELLS THEM APART"

By DR. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG

A. B., M. A., M. D. (John Hopkins University)

Perhaps as many as one in every epilepsy?

five persons may have gravel or stones in the bile sac without pain or knowledge of their presence. When discomfort, bloating, pain or colic occur as a result of this, hot drinks, hot cloths applied to the spot and hot baths help to relax the parts and facilitate the elimination of the stone. Adrenalin and belladonna administered by your doctor are useful remedies for this purpose.

If there is infection in the bladder, as shown by a blood test or fever, vaccines made of the guilty bacteria may be injected. If the lower intestine or abdomen is bloated, enemas of a half teaspoonful of turpentine to a quart of hot water can be injected.

When the victim of bile or gall stones arises in the morning, he should drink slowly two tumblers of hot water. Throughout the day he should imbibe freely of copious draughts of cool, distilled or carbonated water. Sodium phosphate and sodium sulphate, a teaspoonful to a glass of hot water, is also helpful.

Bile salts called sodium glycocholate, and taurocholate help to increase the flow of bile.

The ration, which help to form stones, such as peas, yolk of eggs, fatty meats, fried and greasy foods, should be shunned.

Hot compresses, hot fomentations, high frequency electric currents and other methods by which heat is applied to the liver and abdomen relieve the unpleasant sensations of fullness.

Carbonated waters and similar fluids free of many solids assist the liquids to wash away the stones and gravel.

Massage, athletics, exercises such as horse-back riding, driving in motor cars over rough roads and runs swimming and setting-up gymnastics help to manipulate the gall canals as a snake crawls over the frog it has gulped whole.

The object to be arrived at is a dissolution and elimination of the gall stones. Plainly all solid, substantial, insoluble foods will do much mischief. On the other hand water, fruit juices, broths, milk, soft, watery vegetables, such as succotash, squash, corn, carrots and beets, should aid in the solvency of the gravel and finally free the gall sac of these abominable causes of pain.

Short Stories of the Buckeye State

THE "HELPER BOOK"

The speakership of congress was one of the prizes of political life to which John Sherman aspired but was destined to lose. In 1859 he had reached the favorite stepping stone in congress to the chair of the committee on ways and means—and being re-elected to the house by his district, felt that he had a fair chance to be chosen speaker.

And he probably would have been so honored but for the opposition of the so-called conservative element of the Whig party with which he had formerly co-operated. At that time there had appeared a very notable book on slavery, ranking among the anti-slavery literature of the day with Harriet Beecher Stowe's Uncle Tom's Cabin. But approaching the subject from the economical instead of the moral side, and being far from friendly to the negro.

It was popularly known as the "Helper Book," but its real title was "The Impending Crisis in the South" and the author was Hinton Rowan Helper, a native of Mocksville, South Carolina. He was a "forty-niner," held the U. S. consularship at Buenos Aires for a number of years, proposed the first commercial commission to the South American countries and projected a railroad extending from Alaska to the Straits of Magellan.

But these were enterprises of his later life. He first came to public attention through the publication of the book referred to above. In 1857. The work was used extensively by the republican party in the 1860 campaign matter, and in the four years between its publication and 1861, 140,000 copies had been sold. He wrote four other books, "A Land of Gold," "No-Joke—A Question for a Continent," "The Negroes in Negroland," the Negroes in America and the Negroes Generally."

His party having adopted the Helper book as campaign literature, it was perfectly natural that Congressman Sherman, now a member of the new-formed republican party, should subscribe to the work, but his endorsement of the doctrines contained was too much for the slavery Whigs who still held aloof from the new organization, and they prevented Sherman's election to the speakership. But he resigned the next year to accept a seat in the senate to which his state had elected him. Helper lived to a great age, dying in 1909.

WAS RESTLESS WITH PAIN
E. W. Kitt, R. F. D. 2, box 9 Shorters, Ala., writes: "I took Foley Kidney Pills as I was restless at night with pains in my back and side, and they did me good. I can truthfully say Foley Kidney Pills is the medicine for kidney trouble." They relieve rheumatic pains, stiff, swollen joints, lameness, soreness, etc.

Of all the books of the Bible there is none more interesting to study along this line than the book of Daniel.

Most people look at the book as containing a temperance lesson gained from the life of Daniel. But there is far more in this book than just a temperance lesson. God has told the history of the world from the time of Nebuchadnezzar up to the end of time. Hence it is important to study this book since people are asking so many questions concerning these times. Beginning with Friday evening the 5th Rev. R. H. Moon pastor of the Christian and Missionary Alliance started a Bible class in the study of Daniel as it relates to prophecy. This class will continue from week to week unless the book is finished. A Maine farmer, starting for the agricultural fair at Topsham recently, took $10,000 worth of Liberty bonds and other securities in his auto, fearing they might be stolen if he left them at home. The box which contained the bonds was jolted out of the car in going over the rough roads, and was not missed until the end of the trip.

RED CROSS SEAL SALE.

This week has marked the opening of the sale of Red Cross Seal in the campaign against Tuberculosis. The Child Welfare Association is in charge of the drive in Lima, with Dr. Josephine Pierce chairman. Extensive plans were made and from all indications this sale will this year be the most successful for many years.

For some time now, Lima has been buying the seals, but this year such an organization has been planned that there will indeed be a very active campaign.

We found, that the school children could do much marvelous work in the sales department in War Savings Stamps, so that their services were enlisted at once, and they have done admirably. During the past week their showing has been splendid.

Aside from the school sales almost everyone will have an opportunity to secure seals, from almost every source. Society women are in all the hotels, the postoffice and the prominent stores, and people are accosted on every hand.

When one realizes the broad humanitarian purpose which prompts the sale of the stamps, he is reminded of the fact that it is his duty to purchase to the limit. The influence of the Red Cross Christmas seal which has done so much good for the United States has been extended to France, and that country is this year adopting the same plans for prevention and cure of the dread disease.

This year more than 50,000,000 stamps are on sale, each one costs a penny, every man, woman and child should buy as many as they can afford.

HANDSOME DINNER.

Thursday evening, the evening on which Ernest Bruce Haswell lectured here, together with Dr. Bruce T. Hedland were honor guests at an elaborate dinner at the Norval Hotel, when just members of the Art committee were present.

The tables were in the form of a hollow square, this space being filled with a handsome fernery, while tall bronze candle sticks held pink candles, which shed their pretty glow over the scene. On the inside of the square, the snowy cloth was artfully with greenery and here and there a pink chrysanthemum. This beautiful decorating was the handiwork of Mrs. Harriet Holmes and Mrs. Peter M. Hulsken, who are endowed with that unusual artistic sense of taste which is only for those of the elect.

Covers were laid at the dinner for Mr. Haswell, Dr. Hedland, Mrs. E. A. Williams, Mrs. Leah M. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wemmer, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Harriet Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Peter M. Hulsken, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cowan, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Colt, Mrs. Margaret Jacobs, Mrs. Jacobus, Miss Beattie Kelly and Miss Edith Simpson.

Coffee was served in the lounge with Mrs. Butler, Mr. Scott and Mrs. Hulsken pouring.

ART WEEK.

Art week came to an elaborate close Friday afternoon when at the Y. M. C. A. where the exhibit was being held and where the members of the art committee poured tea, the very successful week was brought to a close, with an informal program. Miss Elizabeth Hay, of Central High School presented a very splendid paper on "Whistler" who would have done credit to anyone much older than she. However no one could have been more interested in her subject.

In closing the week, Mr. P. A. Williams, Jr., chairman of the Art Committee of the Federation, thanked all those who had helped make the week such a decided success, and also stated that she hoped that the people of the city interested in art had had the opportunity to attend all the afternoon during the week, as at each of these very informal gatherings some very good talks were given by authorities, and persons who were well informed.

The address of Thursday evening that was the featured address, was given by Ernest Bruce Haswell, the Cincinnati sculptor, while Dr. P. Hedland who addressed the audience on Monday evening, returned for the evening, and gave a short talk, following Mr. Haswell's talk, which was illustrated with slides.

Quite a number of new places were received for the Art Museum Association, founded here in 1916, as the funds from this year may furnish means for bringing to Lima various featured artists from time to time. The Art committee has at present made arrangements for an appearance of Gerald Thayer, who with his father, is of international reputation, the last week in January.

Miss Dixie Seiden, of Cincinnati and Mrs. Mary Alexander who will model in clay as she talks will appear some time in the early spring. Mrs. Haswell, on Thursday evening, had among his collection an old colored mammy the work of Miss Seiden.

The Art committee was much pleased with the last art exhibit, as larger cities now boasting of handsome art museum, had their beginnings in smaller quarters than those which were used during the past week. Now that the first step has been made, it is probable that progress will be made rapidly toward that certain goal.

COMING PARTIES.

Although the Christmas holidays will be crowded with festivities, still the announcement that there will be no charity ball this year, comes as a sort of shock to our social system. For years this affair has been looked forward to eagerly dance loving people, both old and young and has always been one of the elaborate parties of the holiday season.

The Epston Fraternity, a number of former high school boys will issue over two hundred invitations for a dance to be given some time during the holidays. The successful party of last summer which the Fraternity gave is proof positive of their excellent entertainers.

Both the Lima Club and the Elks Club will have formal parties during the holidays, the Lima Club party to be at New Years, while the date of the Elks has as yet not been decided upon.

The Wayfarers or the Strollers Club will entertain some time during the week, but these dates of final arrangements have, as yet, not been made.

Several members of the younger social set are making arrangements for a large formal party at Christmas time although the hostesses, of course have not issued their invitations as yet. This will be one of the largest parties of the week.

Local members of the Delta Tau Delta Fraternity are now planning for their Christmas party.

Hoffman extends an invitation to all women of the church.

In two weeks, Mrs. Ed Hemper will entertain the club at the annual Christmas meeting, the grab bag being featured.

HELP TO ANSWER THIS PRAYER

This little girl is praying that the Good Santa Claus may fill her stocking. Last year she prayed, but the prayer was unanswered, and the child's faith in God was momentarily shaken. But the faith of a child is something sublime, and cannot be crushed, except by constant failure. The mother sits by, powerless to make the child's prayer come true.

But YOU, dear reader, you are privileged to the Master's disciple at this Christmas time. YOU can make this little girl's prayer come true. YOU can bring happiness to a sodden and cheerless home. YOU have the high privilege of re-establishing a child's faith in God and a mother's faith in humanity.

The Federal Welfare Association

Under the direction of Mrs. Irene Mills Jackson, has undertaken the noble work of seeing that no worthy family in Lima goes without a visit from Santa Claus, a good Christmas dinner and the cheer of the Yuletide. The Rotary, the Elks, the Moose, the churches, and almost every benevolent and fraternal organization in the city, as well as every able and benevolent person in the city of Lima are to have a part in this great work.

AND THIS IS YOUR PART: If you have a gift, be it worn but good clothing, discarded but unbroken toys, money, food, or anything that may bring relief, comfort or pleasure, call up Mrs. Jackson.

THE MOST IMPORTANT THING OF ALL: If you know of a deserving family whose Christmas will be dreary, where assistance is needed, call Mrs. Jackson at the Charities and Relief office, Main 5838. If you want to give your gift direct, Mrs. Jackson will use her best efforts to direct you.

Get behind this Federated Welfare "Full Stocking" Movement. It is the work of Him who said: "Inasmuch as ye do it unto these * * * Ye do it also unto me."

Which?

Are the précepts and examples of such men as Washington, Jefferson, Franklin and the men of the kind whose wisdom, courage and patriotism established the beginning of this great Republic, to be set aside by the high-sounding but foolish speech of the apostles of unrest and disorder preaching class hatred among us?

There was no class hatred in Washington's day.

Washington and Jefferson were rich men of their time but they "pledged their lives, their FORTUNES and their sacred honor" in the cause of Liberty. They worked hand in hand with Franklin who started life as a "printer's devil," for the common good. Rich and poor alike shared the struggle for Independence, and the blood-stained snow of Valley Forge attest the spirit and devotion to the cause by the soldier in the ranks.

And there can be no class hatred now—after the Great War in which the rich man's son and the poor man's son marched shoulder to shoulder sharing the common danger and the common victory—that the Liberty of our forefathers might be spread throughout the world.

"I have lived a great many years," said Franklin, "and the older I get the more firmly I believe that God Governs in the affairs of men." Such were the God-fearing qualities of the men of his time, when the nation was beginning to take shape, as contrasted today with the "free love" and atheism of the European disturber.

Are the specious arguments against wealth and property of the Ultra-Radical to discount the wisdom of Abraham Lincoln, who said: "Property is a positive benefit to mankind; that some are rich shows that others may become rich"? This from a man who all our great men alone knew the true meaning of poverty!

Roosevelt could well be termed a "bourgeois" by the radicals. Yet what man espoused the cause of the worker with greater force and persistence?

Woodrow Wilson, the President of the United States has sounded to the depths the heart of this great nation, and he has accurately interpreted to the world the high ideals and lofty spirit of our people—our heritage from the founders of this Republic—which is unaffected by the specious arguments and propaganda of the foreign agitator.

Every generation has been called upon to decide questions of more or less importance, and the plain people, using plain common sense, have settled these questions in a common sense way.

Plain common sense is needed today to decide whether we will follow the path of democracy laid out by the founders of the Republic or whether we will forsake it for the new route, leading we know not whither, to which the imported radicals point; whether we will abandon that which has withstood the test of a century and a half for new and untried theories of government which are foreign to our American tradition, our American ideals and our individual American spirit.

FORMER COLUMBUS GROVE BOY HEADS JORDAN CAR PLANT

Russell S. Begg, former Columbus Grove boy, who as a lad in the little Ottawa county town was always fond of tinkering with mechanical toys, and these tinkering led him into larger fields, today stands forth as one of the most expert automobile engineers in the United States. In fact Begg is the man behind the designs of the latest Jordan cars, for he is that company's chief engineer.

In "Motor Age," of November 27, seven pages are devoted to Begg and his latest production. One page contains a portrait of the former Columbus Grove lad. The other pages tell of the car which was designed by him.

It has long been Begg's ambition, according to the article, to construct a light-weight, high-grade, good-looking, perfectly-balanced, rattle-proof, comfortable, economical, performing car that would stay "put." He was at last given this opportunity by the Jordan company, and after working night and day on the product for two years finally produced it.

The first made car of this type was given a trial test through the Pennsylvania mountains, and was put through the very hardest of tests. It came through with banners flying, says the magazine article.

The Jordan car is handled in this city of the Lima Jordan Sales Company with offices and sales rooms at south Elizabeth and Water streets.

DID NOT LOOK THE PART

A story told by the late Bishop Greer illustrates the plain nature of the man. On an occasion when he was to confirm a class a carriage was sent for him in charge of an English coachman who had been imported by a wealthy American. Bishop Greer walked unaccompanied from his front door to the carriage and entered it, but the driver did not move his horses. After waiting for a moment the bishop asked the man why he did not drive on.

"I'm waiting for the lord bishop of New York, sir," the proper person replied.

"Well," said the bishop, "I'm it. Drive on."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Twice as the cab slowly wended its way up the steep hill the door opened and slammed. At first the man inside paid little heed, but the third time he demanded to know why he should be disturbed in this fashion.

"Hush!" cautioned the driver. "Don't spake so loud. He'll overhear us."

"Who'll overhear us?"

Automobile News

The blades of some fans have an objectional habit of working loose on account of defective riveting at the hubs, and for this reason a new fan should be rather carefully watched.

A loose blade can do a great deal of damage, and when one blade goes the rest of the fan often is damaged if running at very high speed, because of the lack of balance.

LISTEN TO THIS MR. GLASS THROWER

Have you no heart, you folks who have developed the habit of throwing broken glass into streets used by motor cars?

They say that a lot of the glassware comes from bottles and things dropped from automobiles, and that non-owners have little to do with this pernicious practice.

If that is so, Mr. Motorist, just please stop and consider that while your car is ahead of the broken glass, there are other cars following astern. And some day it will be your turn to cut your tires on glass, since a bad habit once started spreads like the measles.

So pray consider. Pause for a moment and think how unpleasant it is to stop by the roadside and change a tire. You must know all about that.

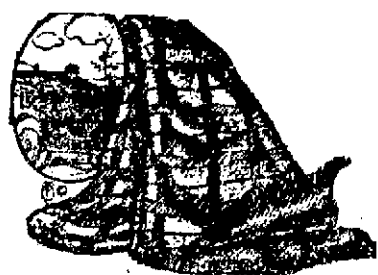

Some of the glassware has been analyzed and found to have been whiskey flasks and beer and soft drink bottles in their intact form.

Think if you must, but toss your bottles into the next field, if at all. There are also fragments of milk bottles and other containers.

Out tires are getting to be a pest in these parts, and it is up to you Mr. Careless Man, to help start to reform.

WATER WORKS PROSPEROUS

According to report of State Examiner Aaron Moul, which was submitted to city officials here last night, the Lima waterworks for the year ending July 31, 1919, earned approximately $8,750.00. The increase water rents which recently were put into effect by Service Director McNeany is not included in these earnings.

What They Say---

THE ALLEN is all WE said it was,—and more. At first, we stated our case conservatively, preferring to let the car itself tell its own story.

With nearly a season's production of these new Allens now in action, we are getting the verdict of the continent,—the spontaneous opinions of owners and dealers.

Here is what THEY say:

"It is a hundred percent car."—Akron, Ohio.
"Came over the mountains in fine shape, and on the hills passed everything."—Baltimore.
"We are convinced of the wonderful ability of the Allen."—Buffalo.
"The car could not work better * * * is causing quite a sensation."—Camden, N. J.
"The car sold itself to us completely."—Cleveland.
"The power and acceleration surpass anything I ever witnessed."—Des Moines.
"The car performs wonderfully."—Detroit.
"As pretty a car as I have ever seen."—Indianapolis.
"The most perfect automobile I have ever driven."—Kansas City.
"Such pep and go I never saw before in any car."—Knoxville.

"Has the appearance and riding qualities of a much higher priced car."—Louisville.

"This new car is a wonder."—Minneapolis.

"Impressed with the excellent appearance, easy operation and power."—New York City.

"In two weeks' search I have found nothing as good."—Omaha.

"The performance of our car we would express with the word 'wonderful'."—Pittsburgh.

"Driven over a thousand miles and not out of high gear for a hill * * * averaged 20 3-4 miles to the gallon."—Rising Sun, Ind.

"It sure is a comfort car."—St. Paul, Minn.

"The little things, overlooked on most cars, seem to have been taken care of."—Toledo.

So unanimous an endorsement may safely be relied upon.

Hints To Motorists

A complaint against the excessive numbers of smoking automobiles voiced the other day by a man writing to one of the newspapers came to my notice just a day or so after it had struck me how few smoking automobiles were observable nowadays. Which is proof that different persons look at things differently, if it shows nothing else.

Compared to the experience of a few years ago, automobiles today smoke almost not at all. There was a time when disregard of the rights this respect was carried to a point beyond all bearing. But nowadays, even in a heavy traffic on the most used avenues, there is only a very moderate amount of smoking, and that is excusable. When a lot of cars with engines running, are held up for traffic regulation it isn't unreasonable that they should discharge some smoke when they get away. But, taken all in all, smoking exhausts aren't actually very many.

Automobiles never become stale, even if there are 5,000,000 or so in use. Only a day or so ago a dashing looking four-passenger car, with all bright parts polished, stood in front of a downtown office building. And there was a crowd around it four or five deep looking it over. An airplane in the street would have attracted more attention, to be sure, but no wonder. Motor cars are so far from being a novelty nowadays that it was decidedly noticeable how the people thronged about this machine. As long as much interest is displayed the "saturation point" is still far off.

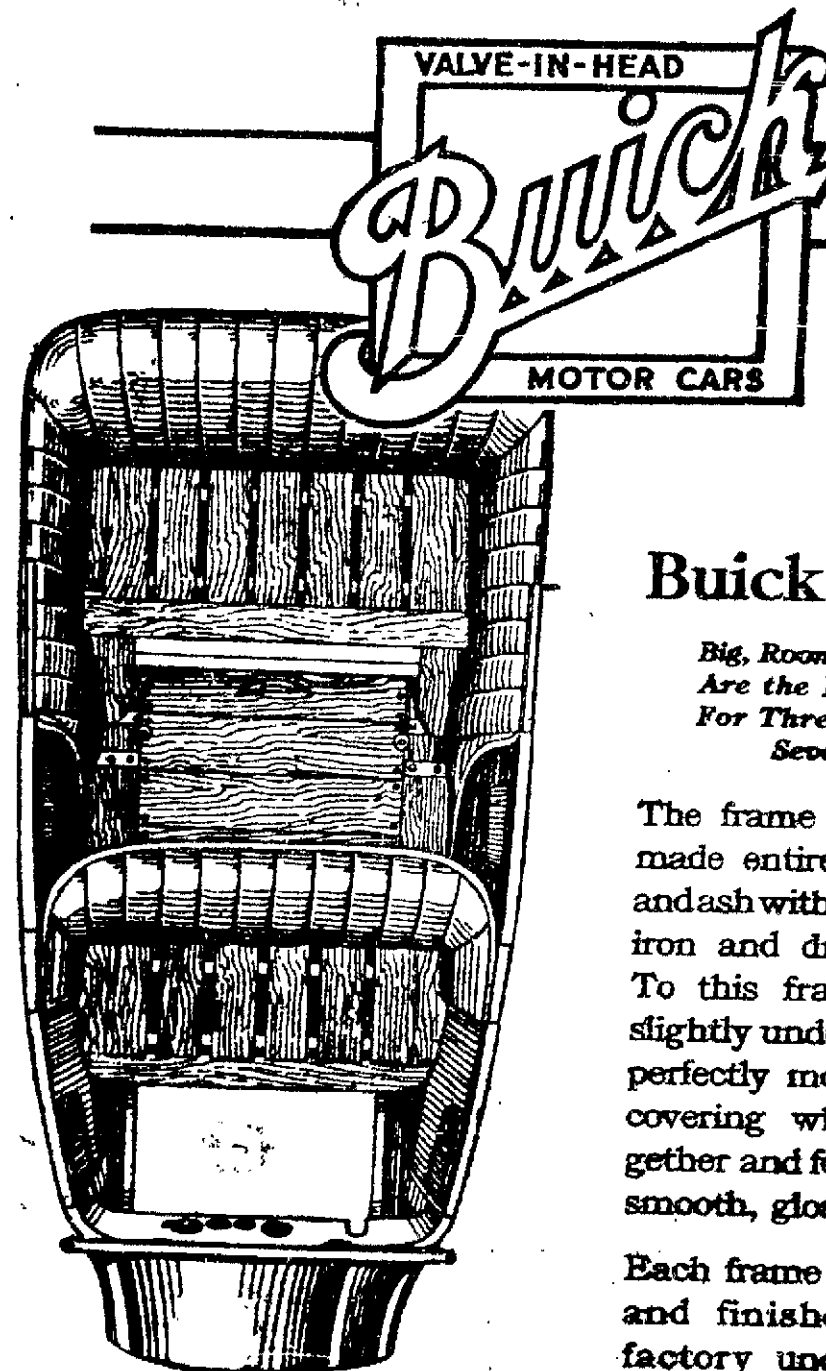

An engine should not be permitted to labor, even if it can be kept going. When running very slowly the sudden blows of the explosion acting against the resistance of the slow-moving crank shaft set up tremendous stresses that are as dangerous as they are unnecessary.

It is advisable to clean and readjust the spark plugs occasionally. The points burn away gradually, and if not readjusted cause irregular firing. The motor will also throttle better at slow speeds if the plugs are kept in proper condition.

When installing tire chains it is not advisable to have them too tight. If the chains are held in a fixed position the thread of the tire is apt to be loosened at these points. If the persistent leaking of a flange joint on the manifold, where cooper is used for the gasket. The trouble, however, nearly always can be remedied by cutting a groove around the post with a cold chisel and another around the hole in the flange. When the studs which hold the manifold in place are drawn up, the gasket is compressed and partially fills the grooves, sealing the joint.

REGENT PROGRAM
Today is the last day to see Norma Talmadge at the Regent Theatre in her great success "The Isle of Conquest," which is a screen adaptation from Arthur Hornblow's widely read novel "By Right of Conquest." In "The Isle of Conquest," Norma Talmadge is seen at her best on a desert island with a stoker who happens to be a woman hater and was formerly a successful ship builder until his sweetheart heartlessly jilted him and brought the youth to his present low estate. The story is a familiar one as the novel from which it is taken has been so popular. The woman had good cause to hate all men as well as the man had reason for losing his belief in women.

Sunday's attraction will be J. Warren Kerrigan and Lois Wilson in "The Best Man."

Valuable papers are stolen in Washington. An agent of the Secret Service Department is dispatched to New York to secure their return at all costs. The documents are in a secret code and the purloiners are relying upon their London man who is an expert cryptographer to transcribe them. The agent from the secret service department in personates Burnham in New York in an effort to secure the return of the papers.

This is just the beginning of the story of "The Best Man," J. Warren Kerrigan's latest film play.

AT THE ROYAL

One of the most touching scenes in "The End of the Road," to be shown in the Royal theatre three days next week, beginning Tuesday, is that in which the pretty Irish unmarried mother lies dying—giving her life for that of the child in her arm. Beside the hospital bed sits the nurse, Claire Adams, declared "Hollywood's most beautiful girl," a star new to the screen, who has made so great a throng of admirers in "The End of the Road," that she is to be starred in a new super-production now being made.

The story of the unmarried mother—who killed her betrayer before going to a cell and then to the hospital to die—is only one of the stirring stories embraced in the general revelation of sex perils and its which is unfolded in the romance which makes up "The End of the Road."

Primarily, the picture is one designed to combat the age-old habit of secrecy about sex, to which is blamed the growth of a very monstrous menace through the tainting of thousands with a taint that passes through the third and fourth generations.

Shocking scenes drive home this lesson, but these scenes fit naturally into the story and the artistry with which the whole subject is handled makes it impossible to find fault with it. For this artistry Richard Bennett and Claire Adams are chiefly responsible, although they are supported by a cast deservedly called "all-star." Bennett, famous for his showing of "Damaged Goods" in violation of all the traditions of the stage, adds lustre to his reputation as an actor and as a crusader for "cleanliness" in "The End of the Road." Claire Adams is so natural and so winsome in her trying part as to win affectionate admirers wherever the picture is shown.

She plays the role of the girl whose mother was wise enough to

STOCKS ARE FIRM AT THE DAYS CLOSE

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Oils, steels, equipments and motors represented the heavy issues in today's brief stock market session, while motor specialties and food and tobacco shares represented the firm to strong stocks. In the main, however, trading consisted of the usual week-end settlement of outstanding contracts, including moderate covering of shorts. The coal shortage and the Mexican situation were again factors to the extent of reducing dealings to comparatively limited proportions. Investment rails and sugars were in active demand later. The closing was firm, sales approximately 500,000 shares.

LIGHT CHILDREN HAD CROUP.
"I have eight children and give Foley's Honey and Tar to all of them," writes Mrs. P. Rehmann, 2101 Herman St., Covington, Ky. "They all were subject to croup." It loosens mucus and phlegm, stops that strangling cough, makes easy breathing possible and permits quiet sleep. Contains no opiates. Children like it.

NEW EXPRESS RULING WILL AID SHIPPER

After December 10 All Packages Over 25 Pounds Must Be Boxed.

INCREASE EFFICIENCY

Agent Priest Believes This Order Will Save Many Dollars

F. W. Priest, Lima agent of the American Railway Express company, issued a warning today to all who expect to ship Christmas packages in excess of 25 pounds, that the new ruling as to packing will go into effect December 10, and all agents are instructed to see that the provisions of the ruling strictly adhered to. It provides that all packages in excess of 25 pounds be packed in either wooden packing cases or cases made of a cardboard or fibro which will pass a standard test. Packages turned over to the express companies wrapped in paper or otherwise improperly packed cannot be accepted after December 10, he said.

The new ruling does not effect the shipment of packages under 25 pounds in weight. For the heavier packages it is made necessary, it is said by the increasing number of complaints from patrons of the express companies that goods do not reach their destination, or reach the destination in damaged condition. It is impossible, officials of the express company point out, to handle packages with a reasonable degree of safety in the larger offices where they are piled on top of each other in great numbers, unless they are packed according to the new regulations.

Will Not Be Hard
Agent Priest expressed the opinion that the new ruling will not work a hardship on shippers, but will be to their benefit as the rules will provide additional safeguards for their goods in transit. The tremendous increase in the business of the express companies, without a corresponding increase in the car space has made it necessary to pile goods high in the express cars, whereas, before the war, packages could be spread out over the floor and carried safely, even though not packed in the sturdy cases now required.

The large shippers of the city have been fully instructed by the express company regarding the new requirements, but the average citizen, whose shipments by express consist of Christmas presents once a year will do well to heed this warning of Agent Priest.

FOOD EASIER AT HOME

The condition of Colletta Swaney, 14 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Swaney who was shot yesterday afternoon by her four old brother Luther, was reported to be fairly good this afternoon at the city hospital, where the girl was taken following the accident. The little brother found an old rifle which an older brother had out planting a hunting trip, and accidentally discharged the weapon. The bullets pierced the girl's intestines.

A Lipstic physician rendered first aid to the girl, and brought her to Lima in his machine.

Gross neglect of duty was the grounds on which William H. Hadding was granted a divorce from Nellie Irene Hadding. The plaintiff is to pay $25 monthly for the support of their child.

The defendant is to pay $20 monthly until their child is 18, by the terms of a divorce decree given Mary White from Leonard White on the grounds of gross neglect of duty and extreme cruelty. The plaintiff was given custody of the child and the defendant has the right of visitation.

Water Works Receives Coal From Two Railroad Companies

"No official orders have been received in regard to cutting off power of industrial plants of the city, or curtailing traffic in any way," said J. B. Dugan resident manager of the Ohio Electric late Saturday afternoon.

"Five cars of coal received over the Pennsylvania take care of the present needs," he said, "and as long as the railroad administration continues to take care of the situation as they have there is no need for alarm."

The water works has received sufficient coal to last for the next four or five days, according to Mayor Simpson, from the Pennsylvania and the D. T. & I. railroads, and assurances have been received that the fuel administration will take care of the situation from now on.

Look For Orders
Telephonic communication from J. P. Carrothers, assistant to the federal manager at Cincinnati gave authority to the Pennsylvania and D. T. & I. to relieve the water works situation according to Secretary Walter H. Clark, of the Chamber of Commerce. In this communication, states Clark, unofficial information was given that written orders would reach here today by which the Ohio Electric would be required to cut off power now being used by industrial plants and curtail the schedules of passenger cars, even more stringent than the wartime schedules of two years ago.

Discontinue Fast Trains
Official announcement has already been made that a fuel saving schedule is to be adopted by the railroads and officials predict that the same measures will be taken on the electric roads within a short time. The Broadway Limited, the 20 hour train from New York to Chicago on the Pennsylvania and the Twentieth Century Limited, the New York Central's 20 hour train are to be discontinued on December 10.

Merchants Conserve
Despite the fact that the situation in Lima has been temporarily relieved, the merchants and industrial plants of the city are continuing their voluntary conservation of coal. The merchants have been conserving to their full capacity for the past several days by burning no lights after closing hours and using as little as possible at all times, and at a meeting of members of the Retail Merchants' Association at the Barr Hotel Friday night a committee was appointed to call on the moving picture theaters of the city to impress them with the seriousness of the situation and request their cooperation. They met cooperation on all sides it is said and many of familiar signs will not be turned on tonight. This conservation is in harmony with the expression of officers of the federal fuel administration that while Lima will get her share of the available fuel, conservation must be practiced if a great deal of privation and suffering is to be avoided later.

Officials of the B. & O. and Pennsylvania railroads, questioned Saturday had received no instructions concerning the curtailment of power or further cut in the amount of coal to be allowed industrial plants of the city.

Mayor-elect Frank Burkhardt will be present to address the boys and deliver some humorous readings for their entertainment.

Jewelers Are Selling Many Sentimental Circles, They Say

Among the interesting things to be seen among the Christmas shoppers, now that the regular holiday increase of weddings is in progress is the increasing number of shoppers for that sentimental circle which most of us buy only in a lifetime, the wedding ring. For despite the popular fallacy that June has a monopoly on weddings, Dan Cupid shoots his little darts promiscuously at all seasons of the year and the "peace on earth, good will toward men" spirit that reigns supreme during the holiday season is instrumental in snaring many unsuspecting couples within range of his deadly arrows.

Have you ever bought a wedding ring? And if so do you remember exactly how you acted? Did you venture into the marts of trade alone, a proud benedict, or were you the better half of a shrinking, self-conscious couple who shopped diligently before deciding on such a momentous affair as the selection of a treasure to be worn constantly "until death do us part," and knowing within your heart that all who beheld, realized your state of recent matrimony as well as if you had it emblazoned on huge placards which you carried about with you?

Try Camouflage
There are many ways of attempting to camouflage the embarrassment caused by the purchase of a wedding ring," said a Lima jeweler when questioned, "but very few of them work and when a couple enters the store, still dazed from the shock of the ceremony, or worse yet, flustered in anticipation of the coming nuptials, we usually start the ball to rolling by bringing out a tray of wedding rings. This invariably causes them great surprise, as they think they are acting perfectly normal, but from then on it's easy."

They feel as though the jeweler has read the inner workings of their soul, the jeweler said, and talk to him in the strictest confidence, oftentimes revealing their deepest secrets and telling their plans for the future.

We have many different types, the jeweler went on, the most numerous being the ones who are just naturally embarrassed, and make no attempt to conceal it. They enter hesitatingly as a rule and with a guilty grin encompassing their visage. They hesitate as long as possible, looking at each other, and making an attempt to look serious as they make an inspection of the jewelry in the cases, and in any case where the jeweler fails to beat them to it, point to what they want rather than actually speak the awesome words.

Other Nonchalant
Then there's the blusterer who blows into the store like a tornado, asks for the "boss" and immediately states that he wants to look at the best in wedding rings. Sometimes this type has the bride along but just often he comes alone. An-

BANK EMPLOYEES GET BONUS XMAS GIFT

Realizing that under the existing conditions, money will make the most appropriate remembrance of a Christmas time, directors of the First National Bank, at a meeting held late yesterday afternoon, voted to give each employee of the institution, a bonus of 10 per cent of the year's salary drawn by the employee. It was cited, the average man has a hard time making both ends meet under the present conditions, and this bonus will spread more real Xmas joy than an ordinary gift. It will cost the bank several thousand dollars to present these remembrances to the employees, it is understood.
